A lazy girl

Once upon a time there was a girl whose name was Ann. She didn't like to do anything. Although she studied at school she wasn't interested in any subjects. She thought that lessons were boring. During her classes Ann was dreaming about summer holidays.

Mum and dad tried to do their best. They bought interesting books, took her to the theatre and museums. But it was a waste of time. She said: "It isn't my cup of tea".

At last summer came. Ann could lie in the sun and phone her classmates.

But they didn't have time to talk with the girl. They were too busy with different things.

Autumn began and it was time to go to school again. The first lesson was English. It was funny and exciting. They played games, sang songs, set out on travels and did many other things.

Ann enjoyed the lesson very much. And since that time English became her favourite subject. She wasn't lazy anymore.
